Arlene “Tuny” Page and Alina Win Sho Clothes Sponsored Intermediaire II at Gold Coast Fall Fling

Page, who owns Still Point Farm Dressage in Wellington, was pleased with her ride and believes her mare shows promise for the Grand Prix. “The fact that the class was sponsored by Sho Clothes was great because I have a special relationship with Sho Clothes owners Michele and Betsy,” Page said. “They let my daughter sell horse treats from a little table in front of their Sho Clothes Mobile Boutique at the shows, which means I get to have my daughter with me at the shows.”

Page added that she had an extra connection with Sho Clothes during the Gold Coast Fall Fling show. “After 22 years I had retired my old coat and was wearing a new Pikeur shadbelly from Sho Clothes,” Page said. “Sho Clothes is very supportive of the dressage community plus they are on top of the latest fashions, which makes it easy to patronize them.”

Sho Clothes co-owner Michele Hundt said that Page is a beautiful rider. “She looks great in her new shadbelly. It’s how it should fit,” Hundt said.

Sho Clothes, an upscale dressage boutique in Wellington, specializes in the latest and most fashionable dressage apparel for show and play. Co-owned by Hundt and Betsy Rebar Sell, Sho Clothes has served the dressage community since 2001. “We love to support the dressage community and watching our friend Tuny win the Sho Clothes sponsored class was very special,” Hundt said.

The Sho Clothes Sho Room, located at 3220 Fairlane Farms Road in Wellington, boasts a wide variety of the finest dressage riding clothes, apparel, jewelry and dressage accessories available. Sho Clothes also hosts a monthly get together for dressage riders called “Shop Talk,” which has become a hot spot for riders to gather to learn from top professionals in the equine industry.
