Competitors Trade In Boots For Dancing Shoes At Sho Clothes “Dance Your Breeches Off” Event

West Palm Beach, FL- Competitors at the Gold Coast Dressage Association Opener CDI performed a new kind of musical freestyle when they kicked off their boots and strapped on their dancing shoes at the second annual “Dance Your Breeches Off” dance contest. The dance contest, sponsored by Sho Clothes and held at the Jim Brandon Equestrian Center, was the highlight of the exhibitors’ party.

A long day of showing didn’t slow down the dancing crowd, who boogied and shimmied in different categories to win prizes from Sho Clothes. Bill McMullen and Kari Garber performed a rousing tango to win the Best Couple award and a $150 gift certificate from Sho Clothes. Garber also won the Stick Your Neck Out award for the most original female, with a beautiful necklace provided by Carol Ehrlich Designs.

Irwin Bruner and Mary Phelps had the crowd on their feet during their freestyle dance, which netted Bruner the Best Solo award and a $150 Sho Clothes gift certificate. “He definitely has the moves inside of him,” said Judge Andreas Luetzner, a National Ballroom Dancing Finalist from the Fred Astaire West Palm Beach Dance Studio, who helped judge the event.

Additional celebrity dance judges for the evening included New York Times Best Selling author Tami Hoag, and Carol Cohen, owner of Two Swan Farms. Singer-songwriter Jenna Wyatt, who is also a dressage rider, helped host the event with Rick Silvia of Dream Street Stallions.

“It was a great event, the dancing was fabulous and everyone seemed to have a great time,” said Michele Hundt, who co-owns Sho Clothes with Betsy Rebar Sell.

During the GCDA Opener Festival, Sho Clothes also sponsored the FEI Prix St. Georges Adult Amateur class. Anna Tillman on DreamBoy 35 won the class with a score of 67.368%.

Sho Clothes, located in Wellington, specializes in dressage apparel and their mobile boutique is a fixture on the Florida Dressage circuit. Hundt and Rebar Sell love being involved in the community, including hosting events such as “Dance Your Breeches Off.”

Sho Clothes also offers a monthly get together for dressage folks, and in February they will host a Sho & Tell Expo featuring different vendors who will each set up booths and be available to answer questions. The February 10th Sho & Tell Expo is free and open to the public. For more information on Sho Clothes visit www.shoclothes.com.
