Jan Brons and Teutobod Win Sho Clothes Sponsored Intermediaire II at Wellington Classic Dressage Challenge III

Wellington, FL (May 6, 2010) - Jan Brons was once again in the spotlight with his Dutch gelding Teutobod, winning the Intermediaire II class at the Wellington Classic Dressage Challenge III show. Sho Clothes sponsored the Intermediaire II, and Brons and “Teddy” rode away with a beautiful scrim from the upscale dressage boutique in Wellington. Sho Clothes specializes in the latest and most fashionable dressage apparel for show and play.

“I thought Teddy was very good and he is getting progressively better as he does these tests,” Brons said. Brons said he plans on spending the summer working the 10-year-old gelding with the hopes of moving him up to Grand Prix. “This was his fourth time to compete in the I-2, and I think he will be ready for the Grand Prix soon,” Brons said.

Brons thanked Sho Clothes for sponsoring the class and added that he is a big fan of the dressage boutique. “Jan and Teddy have won our Sho Clothes Whip Award in the past, and we are also fans of theirs,” said Michele Hundt, who co-owns Sho Clothes with Besty Rebar Sell. “It’s great to see Teddy making such wonderful progress and we were honored to present Jan with our Sho Clothes scrim.”

Hundt designed the Sho Clothes scrim, which features Rebar Sell’s horse Wonderful Walden. Rebar Sell and Wonderful Walden were Gold Medalists at the Pan Am Games. “We love supporting the dressage community and it is a great feeling to award our beautiful scrims to winning riders,” Hundt said. Sho Clothes has been serving the dressage community since 2001 when Hundt, an amateur dressage rider, accomplished art director and businesswoman, combined her business and artistic skills with Rebar Sell's equestrian expertise to form Sho Clothes.

Sho Clothes, located at 3220 Fairlane Farms Road in Wellington, boasts a wide variety of the finest dressage riding clothes, apparel, jewelry and dressage accessories available and has become the "go to" dressage boutique for dressage enthusiasts from all over the world. Sho Clothes also offers a mobile boutique that travels to dressage shows.
