Sandy Osborne and Plato Carlos Win Sho Clothes Sponsored Intermediaire II at Wellington Classic Autumn Challenge of Champions Show

West Palm Beach, FL (October 29, 2009) – Sandy Osborne and her Dutch gelding Plato Carlos won the Intermediaire II class, sponsored by Sho Clothes, at the Wellington Classic Dressage's Autumn Challenge of Champions show, held in conjunction with the USDF Region 3 Dressage Championships. Thanks to a solid ride, Osborne rode away with a Sho Clothes embroidered fly scrim featuring the Sho Clothes Wonderful Walden logo.

Osborne is a rider, trainer, instructor, judge and writer based out of After the Fox Farm in Madison, Georgia. A USEF "R" judge, as well as a USDF Gold and Silver medalist, Osborne was happy with her ride on the 12-year-old Plato Carlos.

"I was pleased with the fact that it had no mistakes," Osborne said. "It was a little on the conservative side so we will need to create more power and brilliance to get higher scores, but we had positive comments from the judges, so I am pleased."

Osborne said she is already a fan of Sho Clothes boutique, and thanked them for sponsoring the class. "I went shopping and bought something at Sho Clothes before my class," Osborne said, adding that the embroidered scrim will be put to good use on Plato Carlos.
