Janne Rumbough Scores Sho Clothes PSG Championship Whip at GCDA Fall Fling

Wellington, FL- Janne Rumbough scored a 67.250% in the Prix St. Georg class at the recent Gold Coast Dressage Association Fall Fling held at the Jim Brandon Equestrian Center in Wellington, Florida. The high score was earned aboard her handsome PRE gelding, Gorrón. The score earned the pair first place in the PSG class and the overall title of the Sho Clothes High Score PSG Champion.

To kick off the 2008 show season, Sho Clothes had beautiful custom made whips engraved with the Sho Clothes logo to award for the champions. Sho Clothes co-owner, Michele Hundt and judge Betsy Berrey were on hand to present the award to Rumbough aboard Gorrón. “I was thrilled with Gorrón’s performance in the test”, said Rumbough. “And I am quite honored to win this beautiful whip,” added Rumbough with a big smile.

Sho Clothes has made an on-going effort to support the Small Tour FEI levels. “Because Betsy Rebar Sell is a Pan Am Gold Medalist, success at this holds a special meaning to us”, said Michele Hundt who co-owns and operates Sho Clothes with Betsy Rebar Sell. “I was so pleased that Janne was the winner of our first whip,” said Hundt.

Sho Clothes has been serving the dressage community since 2001. Hundt, an amateur dressage rider and accomplished art director combined her business acumen and artistic eye with Sell’s equestrian expertise to bring a unique balance to Sho Clothes. Today, the Sho Clothes mobile boutique is a welcome beacon at the major dressage shows throughout the season. Visit www.shoclothes.com for more information.
